

About Denver Senior Coalitions

The four Denver Senior Coalition Chapters are networking organizations serving the greater Denver area. Our members range from senior housing, home health industry, health and medical services, referral agencies, technology based organizations, professional services such as legal and financial and other community based service organizations. Members include both individuals and companies and for-profit, non-profit and government agencies.

Our membership dues are based on a calendar year and run from January through December. Dues start at $75 for a “One Person Membership, One Company, ONE Chapter for a year.” We also have multi-member and multi-coalition memberships. The majority of the funds we raise through membership go to our Joint Coalition Assistance Fund.

Senior Centers

Castle Rock Senior Activity Center

We are a non-profit organization, open to people 50+ in age, meeting the desires and needs of the GI Generation, Silent/Mature Generation, Baby Boomers and now even some Generation Xers. The wide range of ages means we have very diverse programming, ranging from adrenaline-producing “bucket list” trips to the more sedate bridge league groups, and everything in between. Our transportation program, utilizing volunteer drivers, provides shuttle rides for seniors throughout Castle Rock and to medical appointments for those unable to drive, often allowing riders to live independently.

Address: 2323 Woodlands Blvd, Castle Rock, CO 80104

Technology

Dan Albers—Member of the Denver Senior Coalitions

My passion is in the healthcare field, specifically people who want to “Age in Place”. Both of my parents were in healthcare and this is where I received my understanding and deep compassion for helping others manage their health. There are so many interesting technologies coming out to assist people with their health, especially for the aging population.
