

FAMILY CARE PROVIDER

We are letting compassion and quality of service lead the way

What is a Family Care Provider?

A Family Care Provider is someone who takes care of their loved one in the home. Who knows their own child or family member better than you? As a certified family care provider, you can be compensated as an employee of Amazing Care to provide care for your loved one.

Benefits of family care provider:

- Spending quality time with your loved one
- Getting paid for what you already do

Required qualifications?

CNA License (Certified Nursing Assistant License)

Not a Certified Nursing Assistant? We can help! We have a list of several accredited schools we can provide to you. Certification programs can be completed in as little as 2 weeks and are very affordable! You can receive compensation for the skilled care that you provide your family member if you are licensed as a CNA, RN, or LPN.

What do CNA do?

Certified Nursing Assistants (CNAs) are healthcare professionals who care for patients who are ill, disabled, or injured, under the supervision of a Registered Nurse or RN (or a Licensed Practical Nurse, LPN). CNAs go above and beyond by helping with Activities of Daily Living (ADLs) such as feeding, dressing, bathing, and taking vitals.
