Address: 2323 Woodlands Blvd, Castle Rock, CO 80104

For more than 46 years, the Castle Rock Senior Activity Center has been providing programming and services to area seniors who are “loving life in the second half.” We are a non-profit organization, open to people 50+ in age, meeting the desires and needs of the GI Generation, Silent/Mature Generation, Baby Boomers and now even some Generation Xers. The wide range of ages means we have very diverse programming, ranging from adrenaline-producing “bucket list” trips to the more sedate bridge league groups, and everything in between. We also provide special services and wellness activities. Our transportation program, utilizing volunteer drivers, provides shuttle rides for seniors throughout Castle Rock and to medical appointments for those unable to drive.

About Denver Senior Coalitions

Denver Senior Coalitions is a networking organization serving the greater Denver area. Our members range from senior housing, home health industry, health and medical services, referral agencies, technology-based organizations, professional services such as legal and financial and other community-based service organizations. Members include both individuals and organizations and for-profit, non-profit and government agencies.

Our membership dues are based on a calendar year and run from January through December. Visit our website to view our dues structure. Most of the funds we raise through membership go to our Joint Coalition Assistance Fund.

Joint Coalition Assistance Fund (JCAF) - The Denver Senior Coalitions' Joint Coalition Assistance Fund (JCAF) receives monies that have been paid as dues to the Denver Senior Coalitions. Our non-profit members are invited to apply for these funds through an application and vetting process conducted by our Board Members. At our December holiday meeting we give away Joint Coalition Assistance Fund awards to deserving organizations that serve older adults.

We encourage organizations that serve older adults to consider joining the Denver Senior Coalitions. Visit the website for more information on the networking meetings and how to join:
